Fresh-cut trees on wooden stands will be placed at Ellis park.
Each tree includes a keepsake sign with the name of the sponsor.

- Sponsors will light and decorate their assigned trees starting November 26.
- All decorating should be finished by December 4.
- Solar lights are encouraged because access to outlets is limited.
- Decorations should be waterproof and weatherproof.
- The wind is strong along the river, ornaments should be wired or zip tied to your tree.
- No edible decorations allowed as that could attract animals.
- Decorations can be removed starting on January 1.
- Any decorations left after January 8 will be disposed of.
- THANK YOU for supporting Blissfield Parks and Recreation!

PLEASE NOTE: These trees will be showcased in a public park, please decorate accordingly. The Blissfield Parks and Recreation Advisory Board reserves the right to remove any decorations that are deemed advertisements, political, or offensive. The Village is not be responsible for anything lost/stolen from a tree.
